

HALE JURIED EXHIBITION

AAN is pleased to announce our 2026 Hale Juror

Meredith Ward

Meredith Ward Fine Art, New York, NY

Artists selected to participate in Eye of the Beholder will have a chance to win awards with a cash prize. Thanks to the generous support from Kaaren and Charles Hale, awards will be made for 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place as well as the Hale Award of Excellence.

Eye of the Beholder

August 6-18, 2026

Cecelia Joyce and Seward Johnson Gallery

This juried exhibition celebrates the personal nature of perception. Through diverse approaches to subject, style, and medium, we invite artists to reflect on the many ways they interpret and transform the world around them.

Reception

August 6, 5-7pm

Juror's presentation and comments at 5:30pm

Our juror will choose the exhibition artwork from digital submissions.

Accepted artwork will be announced July 8.

Any works not selected by the Juror will be shown online.

Award winners will be chosen on the day of the reception.

Artwork submissions accepted starting April 1 with a deadline May 28

Submit one work - including hi-res image, medium, size, price and description to review@nantucketarts.org with "Hale" beginning the subject line.

Accepted artwork must be delivered to the Johnson Gallery on Wednesday, August 5 between 7-11am for hanging.
