

PLEIN AIR NANTUCKET

June 13–18, 2017

Closing Reception, June 18, 6 p.m.

THE 6TH YEAR — HERE IS WHAT'S HAPPENING

The festival is hosted at the Cecelia Joyce & Seward Johnson Gallery, located at 19 Washington Street. Events include the Paint Out at Brant Point, a Quick Paint, and presentation of the annual Frank Swift Chase Awards at the closing reception, June 18.

Open to all artists in all painting and drawing media. Flat fee to enter: $30.
AAN, a 501 (c) (3) nonprofit, does not offer artist housing or cash awards.

Completed artworks may be exhibited immediately on the gallery "Wet Walls" for patrons to purchase.

FURTHER DETAILS:

- Sign up starts at 9:30 a.m. on Tuesday, June 13, at 19 Washington Street. You may register and have canvases stamped at any time during the festival.
- Submission limit of 6 new works. Only canvases or boards 14x18" or smaller are eligible for the Chase Awards for plein air painting. Framing is optional. Loose paper works hang with a magnet system.
- Artworks can hang for sale on any day, but must be at the gallery no later than 3:45 p.m. on Sunday for jury consideration for the Chase Awards.
- Artists receive 65% of the sale of each of their works.
- Plein Air works can show in the gallery for an extra week after the festival. Pick up for held-over works is Monday, June 26 and Tuesday, June 27, 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

PAINT OUT @ BRANT POINT

A free group Paint Out with a plein air demonstration will be held at Brant Point Lighthouse and surrounds, Wednesday, June 14, beginning at 10 a.m. Open to all artists, all media. Public welcome.

QUICK PAINT

A Quick Paint event will take place on June 16, in the parks along South Beach, from 1 to 3:30 p.m., followed immediately by a sale of Quick Paint works at the AAN gallery. Open to registered festival artists, all media. Public welcome.
