PLEIN AIR NANTUCKET

June 16–21, 2020

Closing Reception, June 21, 6 p.m.

OUR 9TH YEAR — HERE IS WHAT'S HAPPENING in 2020

This island festival is open to all artists in all painting and drawing media.

Special festival juror: TBA

The festival is hosted at the Cecelia Joyce & Seward Johnson Gallery, located at 19 Washington Street. Events include the Paint Out at Brant Point, a Quick Paint, and presentation of the annual Frank Swift Chase Awards for excellence in Plein Air at the closing reception, June 16. Completed artworks may be exhibited immediately and daily on the gallery "Wet Walls" for patrons to purchase (drop off by 3:30 p.m. please). Flat fee to enter: $30.

This arts event is presently a homespun regional event with modest cash awards.

AAN, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit, does not offer artist housing.

FURTHER DETAILS:

- Sign up starts at 9:30 a.m., Tuesday, June 16, at 19 Washington Street. No need to register ahead. You may sign up and have canvases, papers, or boards stamped at any time during the six-day festival.
- Submission limit of 7 new works. Framing is optional. Loose paper works can hang with a magnet or clip system.
- Artworks can hang for sale on any festival day, but must be at the gallery no later than 3:30 p.m. on Sunday the 21st for jury consideration for the Chase Awards.
- Artists receive 65% of the sale of each of their works.

Share your plein air progress with #ackartists -- your Instagram photos will post instantly to public screens set up by our Wet Walls in the gallery.
